

Mitigation and Sentencing Specialists' Use of Defense Maps

September 1, 2018

With over 95% of criminal charges in America being resolved by plea agreements, there is an ever-expanding need for the help of mitigation and sentencing specialists.

For those experts, such an observation and, we think, the usefulness of DefenseMap.com may be quite intuitive. We encourage them to visit the website to see how it can expand and assist their work. A short time with the following can provide an excellent introduction.

1. Quick Facts about DefenseMap.com.
2. The Sample Maps link in the upper left of the webpages.
3. The main links for both Attorneys and Allied Professionals. You are welcome to open a free Allied Professional account, which will allow you to do things like store clients' Defense Maps and securely share them with the attorneys you work with.
4. The links to Distinguishing a Legal Practice with Defense Maps and Expanding the Role of Mental Health Professionals in Criminal Cases with Defense Map.com links.
5. The FAQs.

And you are also welcome to be in touch with us directly with any questions or opinions about the site via our Helpline and Feedback links.
